

Notice to all Associations

April 8, 2020

Effective today the Municipality of McDougall has closed all Parks, Beaches, boat launches and water access points until further notice. This will include all parking facilities at these sites. This action is based on the Provincial Order to help reduce the spread of Covid 19. Attached is a copy of the sign that is posted at all McDougall sites. The length of these closures is unknown at this time, and will be determined by the Province.

We apologize for any inconvenience this has caused and appreciate your patience and understanding during these unprecedented times.
